YALE HAS TURNED OUT COACHES WHO ARE SUCCESSFUL

New Haven, Oct. 28-The victory or Cornell over Harvard last Saturday, is regarded at Yale as a reminder that there are a number of Yale football coaches who are still producing winning teams against rivals of the first Intercollegiate rank. The suc cess of Dr. Alfred Hayes Sharpe in putting Cornell in football, where it has been in track athletics and rowing for years, was begun with the Ithacans' victory over Pennsylvania last year and established by the score in the Harvard stadium on Saturday. A movement was on foot last year secure Sharpe for head coach at Yale for a term of years but the Cornell football officials learned of it and promptly secured Sharpe's signature to a contract as coach for five As football and baseball coach and director of the Cornel gymnasium Sharpe has made himself invaluable at the Ithacan University Aside from Sharpe, the best known Yale alumni who are coaching the university elevents, are "Lonny" Stage at Chicago, and Dr. Harry Williams at Minnesota universities. Both have had distinguished careers as coaches and as athletic directors for two decades. The work of George Woodruff establishing football at University of Pennsylvania gave that institution not only a standing in the Big Four but a crop of players who have brilliantly taken charge of the coaching at Pennsylvania and have extended i o a dozen universities in Pennsylvanla and the Middle states.

Four recent Yale players have made shining successes of coaches the past year or two. Perhaps the best known is Fred Daly, who has taken charge of Williams College athletes and given that institution more than its share of winning games in the New England Intercollegiate circuit, as well as a high standard of sportsman ship. George Foster Sanford, who has coached Yale, Cornell, Columbia and Carlisle Indian elevents, has reorganized football at Rutgers.
